

Coastal Regulation Zone FAQ

Q1. What does “Coastal Regulation Zone” means?

Ans: Coastal Regulation Zone is applicable for the entire Indian Coast including the Andaman & Nicobar Islands and the Lakshadweep Islands. It broadly covers the coastal stretches of seas, bays, estuaries, creeks, rivers, and backwaters influenced by tidal action up to the defined distance into the land from the High Tide line (HTL).

Q2. How to check the status of the CRZ proposals ?

Ans. Go to “parivesh.nic.in” then click on “Track your proposal”-> “CRZ”. Enter the proposal number and search.

Q3. How to submit the fresh CRZ proposal ?

Ans. After login, go to “Add new Project” and fill the CRZ form.

Q4. How to submit the EDS reply ?

Ans. After login Go to "Approvals" ->"update/modify details of existing proposal" ->"Only CRZ clearance"->"Essential details sought by Member Secretary".

Q5. How to submit the ADS reply ?

Ans. After login Go to "Approvals" ->"update/modify details of existing proposal" ->"Only CRZ clearance"->"Additional Details sought by Member Secretary".